Chapter 7

(Involuntary Proceeding)

AGREED PROTECTIVE ORDER

The following parties (the “Parties” and each individually a “Party”) agree to entry of this Agreed Protective Order (the “Protective Order”) in the above-styled bankruptcy proceeding (the “Bankruptcy Case”): (a) JLP Credit Opportunity Master Fund Ltd., JLP Credit Opportunity IDF Series Interests of the SALI Multi-Series Fund, L.P., JLP Institutional Credit Master Fund LP, and Alimco Re Ltd. (the “Original Petitioning Creditors”); (b) FedEx Supply Chain Logistics & Electronics, Inc. (“FSCLE”), by joinder, (together with the Original Petitioning Creditors, the “Petitioning Creditors”); (c) James Goodman, a non-party (“Goodman”); and (d) ) any other persons or entities who become bound by this Protective Order by signifying their assent through execution of Exhibit A hereto.

Proceedings and Information Governed.

1. This Protective Order is made under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). It governs any document, information, or other thing furnished by any Party to any other Party. Documents and information produced by third parties in connection with this Bankruptcy Case may also be designated Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information (as defined below) by any Party. The information protected includes, but is not limited to: answers to interrogatories; answers to requests for admission; responses to requests for production of documents; deposition transcripts and videotapes; deposition exhibits; and other writings or things produced, given or filed in this action that are designated by a Party as “Confidential Information” or “Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information” in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order, as well as to any copies, excerpts, abstracts, analyses, summaries, descriptions, or other forms of recorded information containing, reflecting, or disclosing such information.

Designation and Maintenance of Information.

2. For purposes of this Protective Order, (a) the “Confidential Information” designation means that the document contains trade secrets or commercial information that is not publicly known and is of technical or commercial advantage to its possessor, or other information required by law or agreement to be kept confidential and (b) the “Confidential Attorney Eyes Only” designation means that the document contains information that the producing Party deems especially sensitive, which may include, but is not limited to, confidential research and development, financial, technical, marketing, any other sensitive trade secret information, or information capable of being utilized for the preparation or prosecution of a patent application dealing with such subject matter. Confidential Information and Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information does not include, and this Protective Order does not apply to, information that is already in the knowledge or possession of the Party to whom disclosure is made unless that Party is already bound by agreement not to disclose such information, or information that has been disclosed to the public or third persons in a manner making such information no longer confidential.

3. Documents and things produced by the Parties in connection with this Bankruptcy Case within the scope of paragraph 2(a) above may be designated by the producing Party as containing Confidential Information by placing on each page and each thing a legend substantially as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

4. Documents and things produced within the scope of paragraph 2(b) above may be designated by the producing Party as containing Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information by placing on each page and each thing a legend substantially as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEY EYES ONLY INFORMATION
SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

5. A Party may designate information disclosed at a deposition as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information by requesting the reporter to so designate such portion of the transcript at the time of the deposition. A Party shall not designate the entire transcript as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information absent a good faith argument that the entire transcript must be so designated. If no such designation is made at the time of the deposition, any Party will have three (3) calendar days after the date of the deposition to designate, in writing to the other parties and to the court reporter, whether any portion of the transcript is to be designated as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only Information. If no such designation is made at the deposition or within this three (3) calendar day period (during which period, the transcript shall be treated as Confidential Information), the entire deposition will be considered devoid of Confidential Information or Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only Information. Each Party and the court reporter must attach a copy of any final and timely written designation notice to the transcript and each copy of the transcript in its possession, custody or control, and the portions designated in such notice must thereafter be treated in accordance with this Protective Order. It is the responsibility of counsel for each Party to maintain materials containing Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information in a secure manner and appropriately identified so as to allow access to such information only to such persons and under such terms as is permitted under this Protective Order.

Challenge to Designations.

6. A receiving Party may challenge a producing Party's designation at any time. Any receiving Party disagreeing with a designation may request in writing that the producing Party change the designation. The producing Party will then have one (1) calendar day after receipt of a challenge notice to advise the receiving Party whether or not it will change the designation. If the Parties are unable to reach agreement after the expiration of this one (1) day time-frame, the receiving Party may at any time thereafter seek an order to alter the confidential status of the designated information. Until any dispute under this paragraph is ruled upon by the presiding judge, the designation will remain in full force and effect, and the information will continue to be accorded the confidential treatment required by this Protective Order.

Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information.

7. Information designated as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information may only be used for purposes of preparation, trial, and appeal of this Bankruptcy Case. Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information may not be used under any circumstances for prosecuting any patent application, for patent licensing, or for any other purpose.

8. Subject to paragraphs 8 and 9 below, Confidential Information may be disclosed by the receiving Party only to the following individuals, provided that such individuals are informed of the terms of this Protective Order: (a) employees of the receiving Party who are required in good faith to provide assistance in the conduct of this litigation, including any settlement discussions, and who are identified as such in writing to counsel for the designating Party in advance of the disclosure; (b) in-house counsel who are identified by the receiving Party; (c) outside counsel for the receiving Party; (d) supporting personnel employed by (b) and (c), such as paralegals, legal secretaries, data entry clerks, legal clerks, and private photocopying services; (e) experts or consultants; and (f) any persons requested by counsel to furnish services such as document coding, image scanning, mock trial, jury profiling, translation services, court reporting services, demonstrative exhibit preparation, or the creation of any computer database from documents.

9. Subject to paragraphs 8 and 9 below, Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information may be disclosed by the receiving Party only to the following individuals, provided that such individuals are informed of the terms of this Protective Order: (a) outside counsel for the receiving Party; (b) supporting personnel employed by outside counsel, such as paralegals, legal secretaries, data entry clerks, legal clerks, private photocopying services; and (c) experts or consultants.

10. Further, prior to disclosing Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information to a receiving Party's proposed expert, consultant, or employees, the receiving Party must provide to the producing Party a signed Confidentiality Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B, the resume or curriculum vitae of the proposed expert or consultant, the expert or consultant's business affiliation, and any current and past consulting relationships in the industry. The producing Party will thereafter have two (2) calendar days from receipt of the Confidentiality Agreement to object to any proposed individual. The objection must be made for good cause and in writing, stating with particularity the reasons for the objection. Failure to object within two (2) calendar days constitutes approval. If the Parties are unable to resolve any objection, the receiving Party may apply to the presiding judge to resolve the matter. There will be no disclosure to any proposed individual during the two (2) calendar day objection period, unless that period is waived by the producing Party, or if any objection is made, until the Parties have resolved the objection, or the presiding judge has ruled upon any resultant motion.

11. Counsel is responsible for the adherence by third-party vendors to the terms and conditions of this Protective Order. Counsel may fulfill this obligation by obtaining a signed Confidentiality Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit C.

Non-Party Information.

12. The existence of this Protective Order must be disclosed to any person producing documents, tangible things, or testimony in this action who may reasonably be expected to desire confidential treatment for such documents, tangible things or testimony. Any such person may designate documents, tangible things, or testimony confidential pursuant to this Protective Order.

Filing Documents with the Court.

13. The Parties agree to submit (including as exhibits in connection with any trial or hearing in the Bankruptcy Case or if filed on the Court's docket) Confidential Information or Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only Information to the Court under seal. Any order permitting any Confidential Information or Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only Information to be filed under seal shall provide that the Confidential Information or Confidential Attorneys Eyes Only Information will not be deemed unsealed for 60 days after the final disposition of this Bankruptcy Case, but shall be returned to counsel for the producing Party.

14. Producing or receiving Confidential Information, or otherwise complying with the terms of this Protective Order, will not (a) operate as an admission by any Party that any particular Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information contains or reflects trade secrets or any other type of confidential or proprietary information; (b) prejudice the rights of a Party to object to the production of information or material that the Party does not consider to be within the scope of discovery; (c) prejudice the rights of a Party to seek a determination by the presiding judge that particular materials be produced; (d) prejudice the rights of a Party to apply to the presiding judge for further protective orders; or (e) prevent the Parties from agreeing in writing to alter or waive the provisions or protections provided for in this Protective Order with respect to any particular information or material

Conclusion of Litigation.

15. Within sixty (60) calendar days after the closing or dismissal of this Bankruptcy Case, including the exhaustion of all appeals, each Party or other person subject to the terms of this Protective Order is under an obligation to destroy or return to the producing Party all materials and documents containing Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information, and to certify to the producing Party that this destruction or return has been done. However, outside counsel for any Party is entitled to retain all court papers, trial transcripts, exhibits, and attorney work provided that any such materials are maintained and protected in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order.

Other Proceedings.

16. By entering this Protective Order and limiting the disclosure of information in this case, the presiding judge does not intend to preclude another court from finding that information may be relevant and subject to disclosure in another case.

Legally Required Disclosure.

17. If any Party is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents in legal proceedings, subpoena, civil investigative demand or other similar process, or by applicable law or the rules or regulations of any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over such Party) to disclose in connection with a matter that is not this Bankruptcy Case any of the Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information, such Party shall provide the Party that produced or designated such information with prompt written notice of any such request or requirement so that the producing or designating Party may seek a protective order or other remedy, and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Protective Order. In the absence of a protective order or other remedy at the time of the deadline for the production of the Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information (including any extensions of such deadline), the Party may, without liability hereunder, disclose that portion of the Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information which is legally required to be disclosed.

18. Nothing herein shall prevent the U.S. Trustee from disclosing materials for civil or criminal law enforcement purposes in compliance with a subpoena or court order, or pursuant to any request under the Freedom of Information Act or other applicable law requiring disclosure, subject to the U.S. Trustee providing prompt notice to the producing Party as described in Paragraph 15 above.

Waiver.

19. The failure to designate any item or information as Confidential Information or Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information shall not constitute a waiver of such claim. If at any time any of the Parties believes that certain testimony or some portion of any item or information that was previously produced should have been designated as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information, that Party shall promptly notify all of the other Parties who have received such testimony, item or information in writing, and such designated testimony or portion of item or information will thereafter be treated as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information under the terms of this Order. If such item or information has been disclosed by a Party between the time of production or receipt of the transcript containing the testimony and the time at which a Party gives notice that the Materials are to be designated as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney Eyes Only Information, such disclosure shall not constitute a violation of this Protective Order.

Clawback of Inadvertently Produced Protected Materials.

20. If items or information protected from disclosure under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5) ("Protected Materials") are inadvertently or mistakenly produced, such production shall in no way prejudice or otherwise constitute a waiver of, or estoppel as to, any claim of privilege or work-product doctrine for such information or any other information that may be protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work-product doctrine, or any other legally cognizable privilege or other protection. If the producing Party inadvertently or mistakenly produces Protected Materials, upon written request by the producing Party after the discovery of such inadvertent or mistaken production, the receiving Party shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to return or destroy the Protected Materials and all copies of it, including any work product containing, identifying, or referencing such information, and the receiving Party shall not use such information for any purpose other than in connection with a motion to compel production of the information. The Parties shall not use any inadvertently produced Protected Materials, or information gleaned exclusively from any inadvertently produced Protected Materials, in connection with the Bankruptcy Case, except to the extent that the inadvertently producing Party withdraws its designation of the relevant material as Protected Materials or that the Court determines that the relevant material was not properly designated as Protected Materials.

Remedies.

21. It is Ordered that this Protective Order will be enforced by the sanctions set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b), as made applicable by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7037, and any other sanctions as may be available to the presiding judge, including the power to hold Parties or other violators of this Protective Order in contempt. All other remedies available to any person injured by a violation of this Protective Order are fully reserved.

22. Any Party may petition the presiding judge for good cause shown if the Party desires relief from a term or condition of this Protective Order.

23. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed as preventing any Party from seeking further protection for or disclosure of any information.

24. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to affect in any way the admissibility or relevance of any information or other evidence.

25. This Protective Order shall have no effect on, and shall not apply to, a producing Party's use or disclosure of its own information for any purposes whatsoever.

26. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction for matters arising from or related to this Protective Order.
